

IMPROVING YOUR TEAM'S PERFORMANCE

Managers often complain that employees are not performing as expected. Employees are then sent on training but with no visible results.

At Conventus Consultinc we utilize a complete training approach which gives companies world-class training to drive significant performance improvements. Our approach will build your employees' capabilities to achieve business goals.

About Us

Conventus Consultinc was founded in 2012 and has clients in various industries including: manufacturing, distribution, retail, financial, information technology, health & safety, as well as oil & gas.

Why we are different

Innovation

We use feedback from you to create learning programmes that actually close your skills gap and drive performance.

Expertise

We offer over 20 years combined experience in human resource management. We know what you are looking for in a trainer.

Approach

Includes upfront pre-training work, training and post-training efforts to ensure skill transfer.
